On Sunday, February 7, 2010, between 10 p.m. and 2 a.m., five TPS Divisions will conduct Super Bowl RIDE spotchecks for impaired drivers.

Sergeant Jack West of 54 Division said, "With RIDE on your side, you always score a winning touchdown."

51 Division will conduct their RIDE spotcheck eastbound on Adelaide Street, at Berkeley Street.

52 Division will conduct their RIDE spotcheck on York Street, at Front Street.

53 Division will conduct their RIDE spotcheck on Avenue Road, south of Lawrence Avenue West.

54 Division will conduct their RIDE spotcheck on Pottery Road, between Broadview Avenue and the Don Valley Parkway.

55 Division will conduct their RIDE spotcheck on Royal Drive, northbound on the Don Valley Parkway off-ramp from Danforth.

Each year, 16,000 people are convicted of drinking and driving in Ontario. About a quarter of the province's annual road fatalities are alcohol-related.

The Toronto Police Service is dedicated to the elimination of impaired driving on our roadways.
