On Saturday, January 30, 2010, at approximately 4:40 p.m., the Toronto Police Service received a call for a robbery at a retail jewellery store in the Bathurst Street/Dundas Street area.

It is alleged that:

- at approximately 4:30 p.m., six suspects entered the jewellery store and began distracting the employees,
- during this time, one of the suspects went to the back of the store where the safe was located,
- an employee heard noises coming from the rear of the store, and found one of the suspects removing a large quantity of cash from the safe.
- the employee took hold of the suspect's jacket and a struggle ensued,
- the suspect fled the store and got into a waiting van.
- the van then sped up and hit the employee, knocking him to the ground, causing serious injuries.

Anyone with information is asked to contact police at 416-808-1400, Crime Stoppers anonymously at 416-222-TIPS (8477), online at www.222tips.com, or text TOR and your message to CRIMES (274637).
