The Toronto Police Service will be participating in the 43rd Scotiabank Caribana Parade on Saturday, July 31, 2010.

On board their float, "Diversity In Motion," will be DJ Sensation Sergeant Christopher Gordon , TPS members, Miss Canada Tourism, special guests, and many other community members.

This will mark the first year that TPS members, community members and youth will walk together in costume at a Caribana event.

The Toronto Police Service will also reveal their Queen.

For further information, please contact Constable Rodcliff Chung at 416-808-7826.
