

Police request assistance with voyeurism investigation, Update, YouTube video released

Broadcast time: 06:00
Saturday, January 28, 2012

31 Division
416-808-3100

On Wednesday, January 25, 2012, the Toronto Police Service issued a news release regarding an update in a voyeurism investigation.

It is reported that:

- on Tuesday, January 24, 2012, at 8:55 p.m., a woman entered a washroom at Stacy Lecture Hall, at York University
- the woman noticed, in one of the washroom stalls, large shoes that appeared to belong to a man
- the woman exited the washroom and waited outside with a friend
- the woman activated the security alarm button
- the man exited the washroom and fled the scene

The suspect is described as brown, 21-23, 6', 185 lbs., short, chinstrap beard, and a square jaw. He was last seen wearing dark-blue or black jeans, flat brown or dark-green shoes with beige soles and two lines down the side, a dark-grey hoodie with a black jacket over the top and carrying a dark brown or black backpack.

See previous release.

A YouTube video has been released. Please click here for the video.

Anyone with information is asked to contact police at 416-808-3100, Crime Stoppers anonymously at 416-222-TIPS (8477), online at www.222tips.com, text TOR and your message to CRIMES (274637), or Leave A Tip on Facebook.

Mark Pugash, Corporate Communications, for Detective Rick Ramjattan, 31 Division