

2018 TORONTO POLICE SERVICE LGBTQ2S YOUTH BURSARY

INTRODUCTION

The bursary awards are an opportunity for the LGBTQ2S Community Consultative Committee (LGBTQ2S CCC) and Toronto Police Service to recognize achievements made by LGBTQ2S youth in the City of Toronto, and support these youth in overcoming the very real challenges they oftentimes face.

ABOUT THE TORONTO POLICE SERVICE

The Toronto Police Service is committed to supporting all communities who are affected by hate and bias.

The Toronto Police Service provides policing services to one of the most diverse and multi-cultural cities in the world. The Service is the largest Municipal Law Enforcement Agency in Canada and its jurisdiction is home to one of the largest LGBTQ2S communities in North America.

ABOUT THE TORONTO POLICE LGBTQ2S CCC

Membership of the LGBTQ2S CCC is volunteer based and drawn from various organizations within the LGBTQ2S community that reflect the diversity and credibility within the community.

The mandate of the LGBTQ2S CCC is to work together in partnership with community representatives in identifying, prioritizing, and problem-solving of policing issues.
